

THE POWER OF SIMPLICITY

With new products and expanded assortments, Dormer Pramet strives to simplify the machining process and help you access the most suitable cutting tools for various applications. Their goal is to enable machine shops around the world to streamline production, saving time and materials. In this latest product launch, Dormer Pramet has announced a new generation MT-CVD turning grade, an economical face milling range with sixteen cutting edges, and added a line of productive shoulder milling inserts, plus much more. With a strong focus on versatility, the latest additions provide a simple solution to a wide range of machining applications. Simply Reliable

Dormer Pramet Authorized Distributor